Objective

In EYFS, Computing is part of our understanding the world area of learning. Children are given opportunities to experience and observe technology in their immediate environment at school and at home. They are encouraged to use ICT to create and edit pictures and photos. Children also learn how technology helps us in our day to day lives.