

Geography Autumn 2
Y3/4
Exploration

Objective	What it looks like
To locate countries in North America on a map.	Using atlases and maps to shown Vancouver’s journeys, focussing on his exploration
To understand why the points of the compass were important for early explorers.	Consider how early explorers knew where to go. How accurate where the maps they had? Look at examples of early maps and compare them with todays maps.
To identify and name hills, mountains coastlines and main settlements in Canada within the area Vancouver discovered.	Use maps and pictures to describe the Geographical features of the area of Canada Vancouver discovered.
To identify key human and physical characteristics of a major city in North America (Vancouver)	Find Vancouver on a map, look at photographs, use internet. Identify features and decide if they are Human or Phsyical.
To compare a region in the UK with one in North America.	List similarities and differences between Kings Lynn and Vancouver.