eBooks

Learning

- To understand the world wide web and how it has developed throughout time
- To consider how technology changes with time
- To share knowledge through multi-media presentations
- To plan/produce a presentation of research findings
- To create an interactive eBook

Key Vocabulary

World Wide Web — All of the web pages on the Internet

Network — Connected computers

Internet — The biggest computer network in the world

Device — Something that contains a computer (e.g. phones, tablets, watches) eBook — An electronic books. Can contain words, pictures, sound, links and video

eBooks

Examples
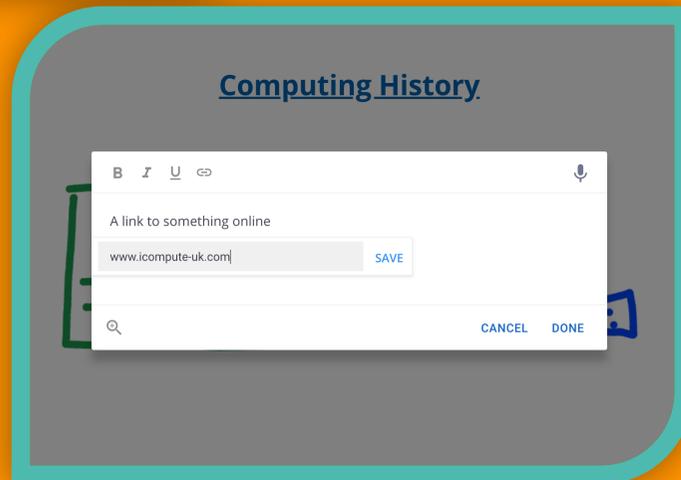

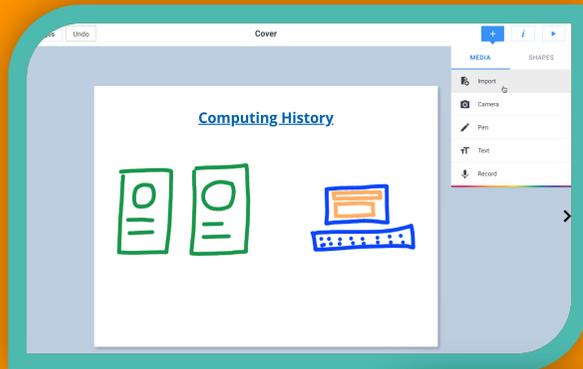

Key Questions

What is an eBook?
An electronic book

What makes an eBook different to a book?
Can contain links, images, sound, video etc.

What are the advantages of eBooks?
The user can interact with them (e.g. listen to audio, watch a video, click/tap a link)

What is the difference between the WWW and the Internet?
WWW is linked web pages. The Internet is a network of computers.

Is all information on the World Wide Web reliable?
No. Anyone can create web content