

Objective	What it looks like
The lives of significant individuals in the past who have contributed to national and international achievements	We will be studying the life of Andy Murray.
Events beyond living memory that are significant nationally or globally	We will look at when Andy Murray won Wimbledon (2013 and 2016). What this was like and who he played.
Use world maps, atlases and globes to identify the United Kingdom and its countries, as well as the countries, continents and oceans studied at this key stage	We will study where Wimbledon is and where Andy Murray lives.

History/Geography – Year 2
Summer 2
History of Sport