

Knowledge Organiser

Year: 1 Subject: RE

Unit: What do my senses tell me about the world of religion and belief?

Overview:

During this sequence of learning, pupils will look at what their senses tell them about the world of religion and belief. They will also study what is good and bad.

What should I already know?

- From EYFS
Christianity and Hinduism
- Introduction to religious beliefs through stories e.g Christmas and the Nativity story; Rama and Sita
 - Introduction to the following key vocabulary: Religious, God, belief, Sacred book - The Bible
 - Introduce the concept of 'celebration' and how/what people celebrate - Bonfire Night, Christmas, Chinese New Year, Easter.
 - Talk about what celebrations and festivals the children have taken part in.
 - Identify simple features of religious life and practice in a family context.
 - Recognise some religious symbols, place of worship (church, temple) and teachings in Christianity and Hinduism.
 - Explore the similarities and difference between the religions: - different stories, artefacts and places of worship

Vocabulary:

Hindu	Followers of different religions.
Christian
Jew
God	A person/figure worshipped by Christians.
Brahman	A person/figure worshipped by Hindus.
	Sacred texts
Bible	Christian
Vedas	Hindu
Torah	Jewish
	Places of worship
Mandir	Hindu
Synagogue	Jewish
Church	Christian
worship	Showing deep respect towards a god or sacred object.
behave	The way you act.

What will I know by the end of the unit?

Christianity

- Christianity is one of the world religions. It is a religion that believes in one God.
- People that follow the religion of Christianity are called Christians.
- Christians are people who believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.
- Christians worship in churches
- The Christian holy book is called the Bible.

Hinduism

- Hinduism is one of the world religions. It is a religion that believes in many gods. People that follow the religion of Hinduism are called Hindus.
- Hindus worship one supreme being called Brahma who created other gods to be his helpers - Vishnu and Shiva.
- Hindus believe that God is not up in heaven but inside each and every person, waiting to be discovered.
- Hindus worship in a Hindu Temple which is also called a Mandir.
- Hindus have several holy books; they are called Vedas.

Judaism

- Judaism is one of the world religions. It is a religion that believes in one god.
- People that follow Judaism are called Jews.
- Jews worship in a synagogue.
- The Jewish holy book is called the Torah.

Synagogue

A place used by Jews for worship.

Mandir

A Hindu temple - used by Hindus to worship

