Unit: How do beliefs shape identity for Muslims?

Overview:

During this sequence of learning, pupils will focus on the Islam religion - looking at Muslim beliefs and how they shape the way Muslims live and who they identify with. We will also look at the way in which Muslims contribute to the communities that they live in.

What should I already know?

Human/Social Sciences

- A religion is a set of beliefs that is held by a group of people.
- The beliefs are about the world and the people in it, about how they came into being, and what their purpose is.
- These beliefs are often linked to supernatural beings such as God, a number of gods or spirits.
- A global religious community has: -
 - a shared set of religious beliefs across more than one country.
 - A close connection through faith across the world
 - Followers are part of a world-wide family.
- Expressions of belief change over time. The change is influenced by travel and changes in society and the expectations of the people living with in.

Islam

- Muslims have rules for their daily lives - these are called the five pillars of Islam.
- The five pillars of Islam help Muslims to keep their faith strong.
- The five pillars of Islam are: -
 - Shahadah - this is a declaration Muslims make to join the faith. The Shahada shows that Muslims believe in one God and that Muhammad is the prophet of Allah. Anyone who cannot recite this wholeheartedly is not a Muslim.
 - salah - Muslims are required to pray five times every day at set times. The Muslim prayer

Mecca/Mekkah

Mecca is a city in Saudi Arabia, a country in the Middle East. The city was the birthplace of Muhammad, the founder of Islam. Muslims all over the world turn toward Mecca to pray five times each day. It is the world's holiest city to Muslims.

Five Pillars of Islam

Five basic rules in Islam that all Muslims must follow.

ritual is performed always facing in the direction of Mecca. Praying gives Muslims, a feeling of connection to Allah, and to all the other Muslims around the world. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Zakah - Muslims give 2.5% of their money to charity, after they have paid for what is necessary to support themselves and their families. Muslims believe that it is their duty to ensure Allah's wealth has been shared equally so that everyone is the same as Allah created everyone equally. o Sawm - fasting happens in the month of Ramadan. During this month, Muslims won't eat or drink between dawn and sunset. Fasting is important to Muslims during Ramadan as it allows Muslims to devote themselves to their faith and come closer to Allah. o hajj - is a pilgrimage to Mecca that Muslims take once in a lifetime if they are physically able and can afford to do so. It is important to Muslims as Mecca is the place where the Islamic religion started. All Muslims pray in the direction of a sacred building called the Ka'bah, which is found within the Great Mosque of Mecca. The Ka'bah is the holiest site in Islam and symbolises the oneness of God. • The Call to Prayer is an important feature in Islamic worship. It has remained consistent over centuries. • There are no pictures of people or animals in a mosque. The Qur'an forbids the worship of images, and Muslim people also believe that art could never reflect the magnificence of Allah's creation well enough. 	Jumah prayer Ramadan Eid ul-Fitr Hadith Social welfare Dispute Revelations Commitment Intention Khalifah Akhirah Madrassa	Prayers that are held on Fridays. The month where Muslims believe that the Prophet Muhammed first received revelations of the Qur'an.
