Year: 3 Subject: RE Unit: How do people express commitment to a religion/worldview in different ways?

Overview:

During this sequence of learning, pupils will study the religion of Judaism. Pupils will explore the key beliefs and values of Jews, including how they express their love and commitment to their religion.

What should I already know? Vocabulary:
Human/Social Sciences	Judaism	The religion followed by Jews.
 Celebrations and festivals bring family and friends together to remember something that is important to them Symbols in religion help people to think about the 	Moses	Who led the Jews out of slavery in Egypt.
meaning of stories and special times. Judaism	Jerusalem	The capital city of Israel.
 Thousands of years ago the early Jews, called Israelites, moved to Egypt, where they became slaves of the Egyptians. Passover is a Jewish celebration that remembers the freedom of the Jews from slavery in ancient Egypt. The word Passover comes from the 10th plague, in which the firstborn sons of the Egyptians were killed. Passover is celebrated with a family meal called Seder. 	Western Wall	Also called the Wailing Wall. It is a holy place of prayer in Jerusalem.
 The food that is served on the Seder plate has a symbolic meaning about the Passover story. The story of Passover is told in a guidebook for the Seder meal called the Haggadah. Matzah, which is bread without yeast in, is eaten throughout the festival. This is a reminder that the Jews had to leave Egypt in a hurry and didn't have time to wait for the bread to rise. 	Torah	The sacred scrolls that contain the first five books of the Bible.
 Celebrations help Jews remember important events in Jewish history. This helps Jews to feel a sense of identity and belonging to their faith. What will I know by the end of the unit? 	Synagogue	A place used by Jews for worship.
 Judaism In the Jewish faith there are 613 mitzvot which are rules for Jews to follow. There are rules for many things including instructions about food, punishments and how God should be worshipped. • Jews believe that Mitzvot are the things that God wants them to do - they are a guide for how Jews live their lives.	Cheder	Jewish school in which children are taught to read the Torah and other books in Hebrew.
