Unit: How did the universe come to be?

Overview:

During this sequence of learning, pupils will look at the key beliefs of Christianity and Hinduism and explore what Hindus and Christians may say about the creation of the universe.

What should I already know?

Christianity

- Christians believe that God is:
  - Loving (showing great love and care)
  - Compassionate (having concern for others)
  - Powerful (having great strength)
  - Creative (uses imagination to solve problems)
- Christians believe that Jesus was sent down to earth by God to save people.
- Christians believe that they can learn from the way Jesus lived his life.
- Easter is a special celebration for Christians.
- The cross is the main Christian symbol. It reminds Christians that Jesus died on the cross to save them.
- God loves people so much that Jesus was willing to die to show that love and to help people to be friends with God.
- Jesus' resurrection shows Christians that death is not the end.

Hinduism

- Hinduism is one of the world religions. It is a religion that believes in many gods. People that follow the religion of Hinduism are called Hindus.
- Hindus worship one supreme being called Brahma who created other gods to be his helpers - Vishnu and Shiva.
- Hindus believe that God is not up in heaven but inside each and every person, waiting to be discovered.
- Hindus worship in a Hindu Temple which is also called a Mandir.
- Hindus have several holy books; they are called Vedas.
