Muslims believe there is one true God Allah (the Arabic word for God). Humanism Humanists do not believe in a god. They believe it is possible to live a good life without following a religion.
What will I know by the end of the unit?	God A being that is worshipped and believed to have special powers over nature or life. Brahma Brahma is one of the three major gods of Hindus. Brahma is said to be the creator of the whole world.
Philosophy <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Religion is a collection of beliefs that people have that help them to answer some really big and hard questions, like who made the world, who should we look up to or worship, how should people behave. People have different ideas about religion and God because: - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> They live in different places. They live in different families They think in different ways. They have different friendships and communities. It is OK for people to believe in different things. No one religion is right or wrong. The world of religion is puzzling because: - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> we cannot see or meet God in the same way that we can with people we know.

<ul style="list-style-type: none">o It is difficult to understand how a person or being created the world and we only have stories and sacred books to tell us - we can't see it for ourselves.• Different people think different things about God and religion. Humanism <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Humanists don't believe in a god or gods, or believe we can't know if there is a god.• Humanists believe we can be good and happy without the need for gods or religion.
